Petition to withdraw the Holding of Abandonment

09/554,464;

Examiner Anthony D. Barfield; Art Unit 3636

Notice of Abandonment, dated 04/23/2008, received 04/29/2008

Notice of Allowability

Dear Sirs,

2008-05-05

Thank you for the Notice of Abandonment.

Unfortunately, I lost two parcels of documents, one of which regularly mailed to USPTO and the other registered mailed to CIPO, which issued two Notices of Abandonment in regard with the patent applications 2,447,263 and 2,425,617. I have already requested CIPO to investigate the case too.

When receiving the Notice of Allowability I transmitted to USPTO the credit card payment form to pay the final fee. For submitting only the corrected drawings to USPTO I sent them by regular mail.

The proverb "bad news is good news" can be applied to this case. Because USPTO has not received them, I must file to you them and a new description, in which I amended the corresponding chapters

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE DRAWINGS and DESCRIPTION OF THE PREFERRED

EMBODIMENTS OF THE INVENTION with regard to the corrected Figs. 1, 1a, 8, 8a and 8b and

Claims 1 to 4. In addition, the figures must be rearranged and the label "Prior Art" must be placed on

Fig. 2. So the amended application and the corrected drawings are similar to the Canadian Patent

Doc. CA 2,314,345.

On March 15 and October 17, 2007 I transmitted to Mr. Barfield

- 1) two facsimiles regarding the marked-up claims 3, 4, 16 and 22 and all the claims, totalling 14 pages, and
- 2) two facsimiles regarding all the marked-up claims, totalling 12 pages.

Hence, I need to file to you only the amended and marked-up descriptions.

This is one of my most important inventions regarding energy-absorbing, vibration-dampening restraint systems, by which Mr. John Hammerschmidt, Acting Chairman of NTSB, was positively impressed.

See his verdict.

I deeply appreciate your help to revoke the abandonment. If USPTO charges me please fill the appropriate amount in the enclosed credit card payment form.

Thank you in advance for your help.

Kind regards

Go

Dear Mr. LeGuyader,

2008-08-05

I transmitted to USPTO two facsimiles, above-mentioned, but they don't respond to my request to pick up my above-mentioned, registered letter, as the German Post Office noted by mailing me the same US Postal Service's statement, in which the status of not being picked up since May 10 is confirmed. In the enclosed letter the German Post Office did reinstate it. Three months elapsed unnoticed! How can it happen?

Would you please inform them to pick up at the Post Office? Please let me know, preferably by e-mail, whether I have to send the same documents to you or another Department if the US Post Office has already mailed back my registered letter. How is about the deadline?

Thank you very much for your help.
